

Are you looking for a job?

Are you an Employer looking for candidates?

Or know someone who may need help either initially entering the job market or returning to the workplace from a long absence?

Well there is free local help nearby at St. Joseph the Worker Job Networking Club.

The Job Networking Club meets each Tuesday at 12:30 to 2:00 PM at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church at 1055 Hughes Road in Madison.

The Job Networking Club is a non-denominational organization that has a mission of assisting any job seekers in developing their job search skills. Volunteers at the Job Networking Club assist participants in all aspects of searching for a job, and stress the Networking approach to this daunting task.

Did you know that 60 to 80% of jobs are never advertised! This is the Hidden Job Market, and Networking is the key to unlocking that market.

There is no fee to participate in the Job Club since it is strictly a volunteer run organization. Each meeting is divided into three segments:

- Introduction of the Club's Mission, its Volunteers and their roles in the club; and Introduction of new, first time attending participants
- A 30-minute presentation by a professional of subjects of interest to job seekers (i.e. How to Network; Elevator Speeches; Dress for Success; How LinkedIn can assist in a job search; Roles of Resumes and how to tailor them to the job posting; Interviewing Skills; etc.)
- A 30-minute Networking session among participants and many times, visiting local company recruiters.

The Job Networking Club operates a Google Group that e-mails daily local job postings for the N. Alabama area to Job Networking Club participants. The range of Job Postings goes from administrative to rocket scientist positions in all sectors of employment including: defense, manufacturing, medical, retail sales, trades, and education - to name just a few. You must attend one meeting and join the Job Club to receive these notices. Employers are encouraged to participate with us and use our free service by alerting us to their job postings for distribution in our Google Group at no charge.

Complete participation information is available at the Club's new website: www.sjwjobclub.org

The Job Networking Club cannot guarantee you will get a job – that is your “selling-yourself” task. But, participation in the Club can arm you with the updated knowledge and skills you need to effectively sell yourself! Take a look at the Testimonials on our Website! Nothing sounds better to us than to hear you say – “I got a job!”
